FARMER'S RASH ACT

The Awful Deed of Dan M. Dove of Arkansas.

KILLS SISTER-IN-LAW

He Then Returns Home, Kisses His Wife and Children, Walks to Back Door and Ends His Own Existence.

Little Rock, April 22.—A special to the Arkansas Gazette from Hope, Ark., says: Near Columbus, in Howard county, Dan H. Dove, a prosperous farmer, shot and killed Mrs. Zan Dove, the wife of his brother. After the killing he rode to his own home, called his wife and children to him and kissed them a fervent good by. He then told them to leave him, as he intended to kill himself. Walking to the back door of the house, and using the same pistol with which he had killed his sister-in-law, he fired the shot which sent his soul into eternity.

The reports of the affair received are meager, and what transpired between Mrs. Dove and her brother-in-law before the fatal shot was fired is not known. It seems there had been a quarrel between Dove and his brother's family over some land. Monday Dove was in Columbus, and on his way home, which is not far distant from the village, he met his brother's wife. He killed her with a thirty-eight calibre pistol, then hurried home and committed suicide, shooting himself in the left temple.

Mrs. Dove, the dead woman, was a daughter of B. W. Arnett, a prominent Howard county man.

The Doves are prosperous and highly respected people. Dan Dove was a well-to-do farmer.

ANOTHER TRAGEDY.

John Harless, a Strike Leader, Shot to Death in a Fight.

Charleston, W. Va., April 22.—Another tragedy, growing out of the battle between striking miners and deputy United States marshals at Stansford City last February, occurred near that place Tuesday, when John Harless, of the strike leaders, was shot and killed by John Laing and a man named George, who went with Deputy Marshals Cunningham and Summers to arrest Harless on a warrant issued by the federal court. Cunningham and Summers went to the home of Harless and accompanied by Laing and George, and as they approached the house the two latter were left stationed some distance away to stop Harless in case he tried to get away. Cunningham and Summers approached from the other side of the street and Harless seeing them, ran out of the house and toward the woods. As he passed near Laing and George they halted him, but he refused to stop and dodging behind a tree, drew his pistol. Laing and George fired on him and he fell dead. Harless was said to have been one of the leaders of the strikers at the Stansford City fight.

John Laing is the manager of the Lanard Coal company's mines, whose property adjoins Stansford City.

TEN LIVES LOST.

Terrible Results Caused by the Caving in of a Railroad Tunnel.

City of Mexico, April 22.—Ten workmen engaged in making a tunnel on the Mexican Central's extension at Tuxpam, in the state of Jalisco, lost their lives by a cavein, caused by several earthquake shocks coming in rapid succession. The first shock caused the falling in of the interior workings, and when the gang of workmen went in to clear away the debris they were caught by a second cavein, which resulted from fresh earthquake shocks.

Miss Daisy Jones Sponsor.

Wetumka, I. T., April 22.—Miss Daisy Jones of this place has been appointed sponsor for the Creek nation of the national reunion of the United Confederate Veterans at New Orleans.

Line of Reservoirs.

Guthrie, Okla., April 22.—Along the new Santa Fe extension, and fifty miles from Newkirk to Pauls Valley, the company is establishing a line of reservoirs, some of which are unusually large.

Vanderbilt-Rutherford Alliance.

Paris, April 22.—When a request was made at the residence of Mrs. Rutherford for a confirmation or denial of the report of that lady's rumored engagement to W. K. Vanderbilt, word was returned that no answer would be given. Mr. Vanderbilt said he was too busy to be interviewed. American colony, however, believe they will soon be married.

Five Fatalities.

Kansas City, April 22.—In the wreck of the Frisco train near Evinston, Mo., Mail Clerk Colman of this city was killed. This makes five fatalities.

YOUTSEY RECALLED.

Stated That Senator Deboe Said Goebel
Must Not Be Killed.

Frankfort, Ky., April 22.—Henry Youtsey was recalled for further cross examination in the trial of James Howard Tuesday. Youtsey was asked if he did not refuse to tell Assistant Auditor Frank Johnson where he was when Goebel was shot. He said Johnson asked him the question and that he told Johnson he was in a safe place. Johnson said that he was not sufficiently definite, as the detectives had called for particular data as to where all employees of the office were when the shot was fired. Youtsey then told him he was in the toilet room in the basement of the executive building. Youtsey denied that he had ever told Gen. A. Leads prior to the shooting that Goebel once beat him out of a fee and that he despised him. He admitted that he told R. H. Witherspoon and other relatives that newspaper reports that he had named Jim Howard as the man who fired the shot were without foundation.

"It was my defense at that time," said Youtsey, "that Howard and me were strangers, and I told everybody I had never seen Howard till we met in jail. Further along in the interrogation Youtsey declared that from and after the shooting of Goebel all of the others engaged in the killing conspired together to clear themselves and throw the entire responsibility of the crime upon him.

Responding to questions as to negotiations with Dr. Johnson to kill Goebel, Youtsey said he went to see Senator Deboe, and told him Johnson and others were willing to do it. Senator Deboe, according to witness, replied that enough Democrats were going to vote with Taylor to retain him in office and it would not be necessary to kill Goebel. Deboe said it must not be done. Witness went back and told Johnson what Deboe said. Johnson told him not to pay any attention to Deboe, but to go and see what Gov. Taylor said about it. He went to see Taylor and told him what Johnson said and Taylor raised no objection to the plan of shooting from the secretary of state's office.

BACK TO WORK.

Intervention Issued for Men to Resume
Their Duties at Once

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 22.—The executive boards of the three anthracite districts of the United Mine Workers of America, in convention here, issued instructions that all mine workers now on strike or locked out return to work immediately, pending an adjustment of all differences by the board of conciliation provided by the anthracite coal strike commission.

District Presidents T. D. Nicholls of Scranton, W. H. Dettry of Hazelton and John Fahy of Shamokin were selected as the miners' representatives on the board of conciliation. The board is to consist of six members, three appointed by the operators and three by the miners.

President Mitchell has appointed the Rev. T. R. Watkins of Scranton to be national organizer for the United Mine Workers of America. He is the only miner-preacher in the anthracite region.

River Continues to Fall.

New Orleans, April 22.—With sunny weather and a falling river, Louisiana levee conditions continue to grow brighter. The gauge here Tuesday marked marked 19.3, a fall of a tenth. The river is now a foot under the maximum of the season, and if the decline continues the water will have disappeared from the wharves at the end of the week. Falls of three-tenths at Vicksburg, two-tenths at Red River Landing and Donaldsonville were indicated by Tuesday's readings. There is therefore not likely to be any interruption of the decline here.

President Enjoying Himself.

Washington, April 22.—Advises received at the white house from Secretary Loeb indicate that President Roosevelt is enjoying his sojourn in the Yellowstone park. The president is reported to be in fine health and spirits, and Mr. Loeb wires that he never saw him looking so well.

Shamrocks Are Coming

London, April 2.—Sir Thomas Lipton announces that Shamrock III will proceed to the United States, where the trial races will be continued. The date of their departure has not yet been fixed, but it will be earlier than has been expected. Both the yachts were drydocked Tuesday.

Death of Miss Lampton.

St. Louis, April 22.—Miss Elizabeth W. Lampton, who, for twenty-eight years has been a teacher in St. Louis public schools, is dead of pneumonia. Miss Lampton, who was well known as a writer of children's stories, was a cousin of Mark Twain and of Henry Watterson and a niece of Rev. Dr. Frederick Pentecost, the noted divine.

SHOCKING ACTS.

Trapeze Performer Charged With Extreme Cruel Treatment.

St. Louis, April 22.—The humane society has taken two children, George and Florence, aged eight and seven years, from the home of John Earle in Washington Avenue, and Earl is in jail charged with mistreating them. The boy's back is lacerated to his hips, both eyes are blackened and four of his teeth are missing. The little girl is in even worse condition. On the instep of her right foot is a wound, caused, it is said by the application of a glowing poker. Portions of her stocking had been burned into her flesh. Four fresh scars are on her left leg, and there is a deep scalp wound in the top of her head. The humane society charges that Earl inflicted these injuries as punishment because the children refused to perform acrobatic feats which he had endeavored to teach them. The wound on the little girl's head was caused by her falling from a trapeze.

Earl and his wife travel as performers with patent medicine shows. Recently they took the children from an orphan school for adoption and when one of the officers of the institution called to see how the children were getting along the discovery of their condition was made.

Search was continued no further than that room, and as soon as he and others there learned what had been done, they began to prepare to protect themselves. He did not see Howard in the hall, and his recollection was that Grant Roberts and Sam Shepherd, clerks in the auditor's office, were the only ones in the hall when he first went out. He said he had been offered immunity by prosecution when Powers was on trial if he would testify that he led as assassin into and out of the secretary of state's office.

Sam Shepherd and Grant Roberts, clerks, testified they were the first persons in the hallway after the shooting. They did not see Howard there.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING

At St. Andrew's Episcopal Church Last Night—Mr. Perkins and Miss Astin.

The quaint and beautiful church of St. Andrew, with gray gables, steep roof and weather beaten crosses, nestling amid the trees that almost surround it, the scene of many beautiful weddings in days gone by, witnessed another last night.

Friends in Bryan and many other points in the state have been looking forward for weeks to the marriage of Miss Daisy Ethel Astin of this city to Mr. Frank Dudley Perkins of McKinney as a brilliant social event, and so it proved.

The church was exquisitely decorated with white roses and Easter lilies, relieved by greenery. Rose arches gracefully spanned the aisle at intervals, and a large arch of Easter lilies, with a wedding bell of lilies and double hearts of roses, was erected at the altar. The church was filled to overflowing with a brilliant assemblage, and many were unable to obtain admission. Miss Mae Cole officiated at the organ, accompanying an orchestra. Just before the arrival of the bridal party Miss Hulda Tarlton of Hillsboro sang, "O, Fair and Sweet and Holy," with much art and sweetness. To the notes of "Mendelssohn's Wedding March" the bridal party entered in processional order, Miss Velma Scott of McKinney and Mr. Curtis Oliver, Miss Hulda Tarlton and Mr. O. E. Saunders, Miss Elma Harbers and Dr. Metz of McKinney, Miss Alma Dickerson of Paris and Mr. Fred Heard of McKinney, Miss Lillian Tenison and Mr. Phil Prather of Dallas, Miss Maud Garrett of Dallas and Mr. John E. Astin, little Miss Dorcas Parker and Master Jim Astin bearing heart shaped white satin altar pillows, Miss Shirley Callier of Dallas, maid of honor, and the bride leaning upon the arm of her brother, Mr. J. R. Astin. The groom, accompanied by his brother and best man, Mr. James F. Rhea of McKinney, met the bride at the altar, and the twin stood before Bishop A. C. Garrett of Dallas, who administered to them the vows according to the rites of the Episcopal church, ever so sweet and solemn and full of stately dignity. The recessional was "Lohengrin's Wedding March."

A reception was tendered at the home of the bride's mother at 9 o'clock. This beautiful home, just completed, is of colonial architecture, complete in design, finish and furnishings. In the spacious reception hall the guests were received by Mrs. O. H. Astin, Mr. J. R. Astin, Miss Mary Rhea of McKinney and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Astin. The hall was lovely with American beauty roses, pot plants and old mission furnishings. The bride and groom received congratulations in the bay window of the drawing-room. Here white carnations and smilax were effectively arranged with a canopy of white satin ribbon above. In the library Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Astin received with Capt. and Mrs. W. A. Rhea of McKinney, parents of the groom, Mr. John Heard of McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rhea, Jr., of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Astin of Stamford. The library was in pink with bridesmaids roses. The young ladies of the wedding party received in the dining-room, where Easter lilies and smilax were woven in graceful festoons from the table to the electrolier. The room was also brilliant with cut glass candelabras and vases of lilies. Music was supplied by an orchestra from Brenham. A bridal book was provided for the signatures of all present, and will prove a much cherished souvenir. A two-course luncheon was served. Punch was served in the hall adjoining the library throughout the evening by Misses Mary Ross Parker and Mary Knowles.

The bride's dress was of duchess satin with court train, duchess lace and diamonds, long veil and orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book, a gift from her mother, from which the service was read. Miss Callier wore white silk net over white liberty satin, with half veil, and carried Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were beautifully gowned in white, with half veils and carried lilies. The gentlemen were in evening dress.

The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. O. H. Astin and no sweeter and lovelier young girl has ever been reared in Bryan. She was educated at St. Mary's College in Dallas.

The groom, Mr. Perkins, is also a native Texan, and a bright young business man. He was formerly a student of the A. and M. College and has many friends in Bryan.

Numerous handsome presents were received, many of them coming from distant parts of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Perkins will make their home in Bryan.

A VERITABLE MODEL

Greater New York Has Another Excellent Structure

IS STOCK EXCHANGE.

Every Comfort and Convenience That the Fancy Can Suggest Appears to Have Been Provided by the Membership.

New York, April 22.—Members of the New York stock exchange abandoned business to devote themselves to the ceremonies incident to the dedication of their handsome new building. It is just two years since the tearing down of the old building to make room for the new commenced, and during that time stock exchange members have been accommodated at the produce exchange. It was expected the work would be completed within a year, but difficulties were greater than the architects and contractors counted on.

The building, which looks small beside the skyscrapers by which it is surrounded, presents a striking appearance with its massive and beautifully carved stone pillars, and decoration of the interior has been arranged looking to the comfort in every way possible of members.

An impregnable vault has been built for safety of securities. The heating, cooling and ventilation arrangements are perfect, and the board and other rooms are large, comfortable and prettily decorated. The building, which fronts on Broad street, extends through to New street, with an opening on Wall street, as in the old building. In the construction of it, it was found necessary to go forty-two feet below the level of Broad street.

In the cellar of the exchange are vaults for safe deposit companies and plants for cooling and heating the building. Members will be warmed in winter by a constant flow of warm air. In the summer the coolest spot in the city, outside of cold storage warehouses, will be the stock exchange, which will be kept at a low temperature.

The main board room, in which trading will be done is 144x109 feet and it is 74½ feet to the ceiling. Into this will go fresh air at the rate of 12,000,000 cubic feet a minute, while exhaust pipes will draw off foul air.

MAKE ALLEGIANCE.

Nine-Tenths of the Lanao Moros Swear Fealty to Uncle Sam.

Manila, April 22.—Major General Davis reports that nine-tenths of the Lanao (Mindanao) Moros have accepted American sovereignty and pledged peace and friendship. Representatives of forty towns north of the lake professed allegiance to the United States before Major General Ballard Tuesday. Peace was assured until an attempt was made to abolish slavery. It is believed that would unite the Moros in opposition to the Americans.

Head hunters inhabiting the Sierra Madre mountains made a raid in the province of Nueva Ecija, island of Luzon. They beheaded four natives. A force of cavalry is pursuing the raiders.

WARM CONTEST.

John Armstrong, a Sophomore, Terribly Injured and May Die.

Philadelphia, April 22.—In a fight compared to which the average bread riot is child's play, the annual bowling contest between the sophomore and freshmen classes of the University of Pennsylvania has been waged in the old Franklin field and the freshmen won. John Armstrong, a sophomore, is badly injured, perhaps dying, in the university hospital. He had been lying under a struggling mass of students for ten minutes. Being unconscious, he was unable to protect himself from the heels of his friends and foes. A dozen or more students were seriously enough injured to be taken out of the fight, but Armstrong was the only man who had to go to the hospital. Three thousand men, women and children looked on and cheered the combatants.

In Executive Session.

TOOK CARBOLIC ACID

Young Lady Who Figured in a Divorce Suit Drinks the Poison.

New York, April 22.—When Miss Ida Morrison, a beautiful woman of twenty-three years, was named as co-respondent in the divorce suit of Mrs. Rebecca Blackmur against Horace Blackmur, and it was learned from his lips that he and his wife had become reconciled, she drank the contents of a two-ounce bottle of carbolic acid and is dying in a Brooklyn hospital.

Blackmur called on Miss Morrison Tuesday night and about half an hour later sent a messenger for a physician, who upon arrival found Blackmur had been administering warm milk with salt in it to Miss Morrison, in an effort to save her life. The doctor used a stomach pump and sent for an ambulance and the young woman was taken to a hospital. Mr. Blackmur told the physician he talked with Miss Morrison for perhaps half an hour, then she went to a medicine chest to take a dose of peppermint. According to his statement, she must have made a mistake, for she drank carbolic acid instead.

ANOTHER MISHAP.

Battleship Iowa Reported to Have Burst a Steam Pipe.

Pensacola, Fla., April 22.—Another accident is reported to have occurred aboard the battleship Iowa, although no fatalities have been reported. Some seamen are said to have been scalded. Such notice is maintained that the names are not yet in hand.

This second accident consisted in the bursting of a steam pipe, disabling the vessel's steering gear to such an extent as to require a tug boat to bring the battleship back into the harbor. The repairs, of an urgent nature, are said to be absolutely necessary before the vessel leaves here.

The Iowa had been in target practice for three days, trying her small guns. While a few miles off Pensacola, the accident occurred and the ship was towed to the navy yard. On account of the accident, the sailing date of the squadron was postponed several days.

Charges Made.

City of Mexico, April 22.—The opponents of General Bernardo Reyes, governor of the state of Nuevo Leon, have presented an arraignment of the governor, asking for his impeachment by the federal authorities. The charges against the governor are based on alleged violation of the constitutional guarantees, especially in connection with the electoral riot which occurred at Monterey on April 2. The petition makes about five columns of matter and is signed by about 150 prominent people, mostly newspaper men and lawyers. The charges are being impartially investigated by the federal authorities.

SAN JACINTO DAY

Texas Independence As Observed by House of Representatives.

Austin, April 22.—In the house Tuesday several San Jacinto day speeches were made. These gentlemen spoke: Harry Haynes, a native born Texan, a representative from Washington county in the Seventh, Eighteenth and Nineteenth legislatures, now on the staff of the Austin Statesman; Judge L. S. Schluter of Marion county; W. T. Potter of Smith county and Patrick Egan of Harris county.

A resolution was offered by Messrs. Nelms and Weinert, providing that in consideration of the boon conferred upon Texans by the Louisiana purchase, which purchase enabled Texas to become the empire state of the American Union, the sum of $200,000 be appropriated for an exhibit of Texas resources at the Louisiana Purchase exposition at St. Louis in 1904.

Judge F. C. Weinert of Guadalupe county and F. A. Schlick of Gonzales addressed the house in the German language, urging the adoption of the resolution.

Colonel Hulen P. Robertson of Bell county responded to an invitation to address the house on the subject of "The Flag," and Judge H. S. Moran of Parker county on "The Constitution."

W. W. Bridges of El Paso county was introduced by Mr. Harris as a Mexican representative in the Texas legislature. But he denied the allegation, insisting that he was a native-born Texan, and refused to address the house in the Spanish language.

San Antonio's Celebration.

San Antonio, April 22.—The battle of San Jacinto was celebrated with a grand military and civic parade. The flower battle and parade in the afternoon were one of the prettiest of the kind ever seen in the city, and was viewed by fully 75,000 persons. The German societies of the city had ten floats in the procession, representing Music, Water Supply, Pharmacy, Paste Works, Grace and Beauty, Beauty's Froen Sweets, Jewelry, Floriculture and Confections, every one of them being strikingly beautiful and appropriate.

Veterans and Daughters Parade.

The entire city was decorated with the national flag, the flag of the Texas republic, the Texas state flag and the colors of Baylor university.

Historic Letters.

Waco, April 22.—The Daughters of the Republic of Texas were the guests of Baylor university. Among the many interesting incidents of the meeting was the reading of a valuable letter which bore the date of April 21, 1836. It was written in pencil on a blood-stained sheet of paper by a soldier who participated in the memorable scenes at San Jacinto, almost before the smoke of conflict had cleared away. Capt. Hotchkiss sat down on the battle ground and, holding the paper on his knee, he wrote to his father of the scenes in which he had just participated.

Serious Charges Have Been Preferred Against Three Employees.

The total of peculations from the corporation, it is thought, will amount to many thousands of dollars. Had not an Italian, who tendered a check to Treasurer Titus of the company become frightened and run out of the office the stuffing of the payrolls might have gone on for a long time undiscovered.

The employees under arrest are J. J. O'Hern, Charles O'Hern and Mary Walsh. The first two named are now superintendents and the third is a section foreman. All were in charge of a large number of men.
